FROM TENNESSEE. A Battle with Forrest Expected-Heavy Skirmishing going on.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 27.—General Resseau reached Pulaski yesterday p. m. Forrest's force was within seven miles of Pulaski, and advancing. Heavy skirmishing continued until after dark, by the advance of both forces.

A telegram received here at ten o'clock this morning reports the enemy still near Pulaski, in force, and that cavalry fighting had been going on all morning.

Reinforcements of infantry having arrived, the probabilities are that a general engagement will take place to-day.

Communication between Nashville and Atlanta Undisturbed. Chattanooga, Sept. 27.—The Nashville and Chattanooga railroad has not been disturbed, and ample provisions have been taken to keep up an uninterrupted communication between Nashville and Atlanta.

Brigadier Gen. Newton, in the absence of Major Gen. Steadman, was to-day assigned to the District of Etowah.

Another Account. NASHVILLE, Sept. 27.—A dispatch from Pulaski to Capt. Milroy here says Gen. Rosseau was heavily pressed by Forrest, and was slowly falling back. There is a report that an attempt is being made by the enemy, with 3,000 men and six guns, to flank General Rosseau. There was heavy skirmishing all day, the enemy advancing. Our infantry and cavalry were in line of battle, and would attack the rebels. A scout at Franklin, Tenn., reports Col. Bif-fle with a large force of Wheeler's men between Williamsport and Hillsboro. A dispatch from Columbia says on that day (26th) Biffle was at Lawrenceburg with 700 men and two guns.

The report that Johnsonville, on the Tennessee river, was captured is unfounded. Ample preparations have been made for its defence if attacked.

FROM MISSOURI. Demonstration on Pilot Knob-Possible Dash into St. Louis-Reported Capture of Trains, etc. ST. Louis, Sept. 27.—A slight demonstration was made by the rebels on Pilot Knob this morning. They threw a few shells into the place, but made no regular attack. The post is defended with breastworks, mounting heavy guns, and can resist an ordinary assault. Gen. Ewing commands.

The Invasion a Formidable One. ST. Louis, Sept. 28.—Nothing has been heard from Pilot Knob since yesterday morning, when Big River bridge, about fifty miles from here, was burned by the rebels, and communication cut off. Up to that time General Ewing successfully repulsed the attacks of the enemy, and succeeded in sending two trains of commissary stores At last accounts, it was believed that Ewing could maintain his position, unless assailed by overwhelming numbers, or by the enemy planting cannon upon Shephard mountain and other eminences in the vicinity, which command our fortifications. He has plenty of provisions, and a good supply of water. General Smith's infantry advance has been withdrawn from Mineral Point to Desdo.

A train of fifty empty wagons, sent from Pilot Knob yesterday a.m., for Mineral Point, had not reached that place before communication was cut. It is supposed they were captured. It is not believed that the demonstrations on Pilot Knob, and the Iron Mountain railroad, are feints to cover the movement of Price's main force in another direction, probably against Rollo, thence to the central part of the

It is also believed that Shelby's cavalry will make a desperate effort to dash into St. Louis, after the fashion of Forrest into Memphis. A passenger train which left here yesterday morning for north Missouri was captured by Bill Anderson's bushwhackers. Twenty-one soldiers were taken out and murdered.

CALIFORNIA AND MEXICO. Reported Defeat of the French at Durange-Cotton Cultivation in Sinaloa-

Rejoicings over Sheridan's Victory. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26 .- The steamer John

L. Stephens brings advices from Northwestern Mexico to September 13th, and $27,000 in bullion. The Mexican troops are reported to have gained a decided success in Durange City. It has probably been evacuated by the French, who were greatly outnumbered.

Eight or ten thousand acres of cotton are under cultivation in Sinaola, with fine prospect. Four men were killed by lightning at Mazat-

There is great rejoicing in California over Sheridan's victories. Greenbacks are selling at 52a53c. per dol-Sailed, ship Daniel Marcy, Hong Kong, with $82,000 in bullion from Chinese shippers.

Confidence in American bottoms for Chinese trade is greatly reduced. Speech of Henry Winter Davis at Elkton. ELETON, MD., Sept. 27 .- A large mesting, to ratify the nomination of Lincoln and Johnson, was held in front of the Court House this morning. Hon. Henry Winter Davis, Esq., in an eloquent address, occupying in delivery nearly one hour and a half, discussed the general political issues of the day. His remarks won great applause, and added strength to the Union cause. The sentiment of this town and of the whole county is decidedly in favor of the re-election of President Lincoln, and of the adoption of the new State Constitution. The desire that Maryland shall be a free State finds the most enthusiastic expression among the workingmen. Malfeasance in Office-Serious Charges-

Arrests.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 27.—The Journal contains an exposition of malfeasance in office by Gen. Paine, at Paducah, and implicates the Hon. Lucien Anderson, member of Congress; R. H. Hall, provost marshal, John T. Ballinger and Major Henry Barthoney, as his assistants in various swindling transactions. Gen. Meredith, the successor of Gen. Prospects for Consumers.—The Pittsburg Chron-icle of the 23d has the following: "We understand that the coal digger's strike has in a great measure ended, owing to the pit owners consenting to pay them seven cents per bushel, an advance of a cent on the previous rates. Most of the men have gone to work in consequence, and we suppose we shall hear of no more strikes now, at least during the present year. As one of the results of the late strike, coal is retailed here now at from 17 to 20 cents a bushel, and it is hinted that it will go up to 25 before the winter sets in. This is bad news for the poor, but we cannot see how the evils can be remedied now. It seems as though the pit owners and diggers were running a race in extortion, and between both our coal consumers will have to stand a severe fleecing or go without fuel, which is, of course, out of the question."

FROM SHERIDAN'S ARMY. The Pursuit of Early Continued-A Sharp Cavalry Fight and a Victory-Extent of the Rebel Losses.

Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune. HARPER'S FERRY, Sept. 27.—Our victorious army is pushing on rapidly after Early's demoralized forces. Sheridan's headquarters on Sunday were at Harrisonburg, and to night will probably be at Staunton, about one hundred miles distant from this place, and fifty seven from Lynchburg. Our cavalry are far beyond Harrisonburg, annoving the rebel flank beyond Harrisonburg, annoying the rebel flank

On Saturday Torbert's command struck the main body of the rebel cavalry near Luray Court Honse, while on their way to operate in our rear. A sharp fight ensued, in which the rebels were worsted and compelled to retreat up the Valley with a loss of several hundred killed and wounded, and seventy-four prisners.

On Sunday morning General Torbert joined Sheridan beyond New Market, and immediately started with his whole command in the direction of Staunton.

THE FALL IN DRY GOODS IN PAILADELPHIA. —The decline in prices was as sudden yester-day in Philadelphia as in New York. The Inquirer of this morning says: "At the auction sale of one of our leading dry goods houses, shawls, pieces of silk, and other imported goods, sold at the same price as when gold was at par, which is a decline of over one-half. Of course, the great decline in gold was the subject of general and anxious conversation. One prominent merchant stated that, owing to the large stock on hand, his loss would be over fity thousand dollars. Another declared that he had promptly marked his stock down to the present market rates. He saw that although a large loss, some thirty thousand dollars, was inevitable, he would, nevertheless, save many thousands by anticipating and avoiding a further decline by rapid sales.

The rebels in the two battles lost threefourths of their artillery, though they claim to have a large park at Staunton in reserve. The losses of the rebels in the recent fights in the Shenandoah Valley are thus stated on the authority of a Government official sent for the purpose of ascertaining: Arrived at Harper's Ferry, (these including 266 officers,) 3,100; wounded at Winchester, 2,200; captured between Fisher's Hill and Woodstock, 2,200; wounded carried off by rebels, (estimated,) 1,700; wounded at roadside houses, (estimated,) 1,000; killed and wounded by cavalry in Luray Valley, 350.
